LCMS Christmas Concerts Raise Funds for Langley Christmas Bureau

The LCMS student Christmas Concerts are being held this year on Friday December 10 at 7:00pm & Saturday December 11 at 2:30 pm. The Friday evening concert will feature senior ensembles and soloists, and special guests the Langley Community Chorus will lead the audience in a sing-a-long of the Hallelujah Chorus from Handel's Messiah. The Saturday afternoon concert will feature the Junior Orchestra, Children's Choir, Suzuki groups and Fiddlers. Tickets are still available for the December 10 concert. Admission is by donation ($5 suggested), and all proceeds for both concerts will go to the Langley Christmas Bureau.

Canadian Music Week Recap

LCMS would like to thank all the students and faculty who were involved in helping make Canadian Music Week a success. Special thanks to Bob Baker, the Regional Director of the Canadian Music Centre, who was the adjudicator for the workshop on November 27, and who kindly brought along Canadian music CDs for all the participants. We are pleased to announce that Celine Pao and Roman Francisty received scholarships for their performances. Elaine and Sabrina Juan tied for best poster. Check out the winning posters and great workshop photos (courtesy of Jerry Walter) on Facebook.

Vote for Sunny Chan for the 2011 YouTube Orchestra

LCMS violin student Sunny Chan has made it past the first round of auditions for the 2011 YouTube Orchestra, and he needs your support to make it through the next round. The orchestra will perform in March 2011 in Sydney Australia under the baton of distinguished conductor Michael Tilson Thomas. Find out more about the YouTube Orchestra Project, and vote for Sunny!!! Voting starts December 10.
