Creating Composers
In Concert
Sunday November 27, 2011 - 3pm

As part of its education program, Creating Composers: Nurturing Lifelong Musical Expression through Composition, members of LCMS Resident Ensemble the Turning Point Ensemble will perform new works by student composers Howard Chen, Brandon Chow, Stephen Duncan, Sophia Lee, Lenno Liu, and Ella Yu, plus Nocturne by Rodney Sharman. The students, age 11-19, have been working with mentor composer Rodney Sharman, educator Rob McLeod and ensemble members since September. The young composers have been learning to develop and communicate their musical ideas, gaining access to expertise and support during their creative journey.

Join us for this inspiring concert!

LCMS students work with TPE members at a Creating Composers session.

About LCMS

Langley Community Music School is a non-profit charitable organization that has been serving the community since 1969. LCMS is a centre for excellence in music education. It's our goal is to provide students with the opportunity to study with highly qualified faculty and to develop a life-long appreciation of music. We are proud of the school's reputation for offering an all-inclusive selection of programming for students of all ages and levels.

We gratefully acknowledge the financial assistance of the Province of British Columbia.
