Turning Point Ensemble Reads New Works by Award Winning Composer & Instrumentalist Brad Turner at the Langley Community Music School

In preparation for its spring 2012 premiere of a new large scale work by BC award winning composer and instrumentalist Brad Turner, Turning Point Ensemble will present an open reading session at the Rose Gellert Hall of the Langley Community Music School on Friday, September 16, 2011 at 7:30pm.

Brad Turner's phenomenal talents as a trumpeter, pianist, drummer, and composer make him one of Canada's most in-demand and highly esteemed musicians. He has been nominated for and/or won Juno, Canadian Urban Music, Canadian Indie, and National Jazz awards. A former student at Langley Community Music School (LCMS), Brad has performed and/or recorded with such artists as Joe Lavano, Kenny Werner, Ingrid Jensen, Dylan van der Schyff, Seamus Blake, and fellow LCMS alumna Renee Rosnes. He was the the 2006 winner of the Lynch-Staunton Prize for excellence in musical achievement.

As part of the development process, Brad is presenting his work to date on this piece for discussion and experimentation with the ensemble. This is a rare opportunity to see "inside" the creative process of one of BC's most accomplished musicians, and to meet members of Turning Point Ensemble in a more casual setting. The reading session is an informal presentation - free and open to the public to stay for the entire session or to drop in.

Hear Brad's piece in its entirety as part of our Jump for Joy! concert event on March 30, 2012 at LCMS. This concert also features the premiere of new work by contemporary jazz great Dave Douglas from the States and music of Stravinsky and Ellington. Explore with us the connections between the worlds of jazz and classical in the early 20th century, and with us encourage new connections in the 21st.

About LCMS

Langley Community Music School is a non-profit charitable organization that has been serving the community since 1969. LCMS is a centre for excellence in music education. It's our goal is to provide students with the opportunity to study with highly qualified faculty and to develop a life-long appreciation of music.
