Welcome Back!

With fall lessons starting, LCMS extends a big welcome to all new and returning students. We have a terrific year ahead, filled with opportunities to learn, explore, create and have fun making music together. Music comes to life at LCMS!

Please join us in welcoming new faculty members Reilley West and Ray Pullen. Reilley West will be teaching viola, and Ray Pullen will be teaching guitar.

We have two new programs this year - if you are interested in Percussion Ensemble or Group Guitar, please contact the office.

Be sure to check out the latest edition of the Tuneful Muse new sletter.

Turning Point Ensemble 2011/12 Ensemble in Residence

LCMS is thrilled to welcome the Turning Point Ensemble as Ensemble in Residence for the 2011/12 academic year. Their residency kicks off on September 16 at 7pm with a reading session with the Ensemble and composer Brad Turner, a Juno award winning Jazz artist and LCMS alumnus. At this session audience members will have a rare opportunity to experience first-hand the dialogue that occurs between professional composer and ensemble as a new work is developed. Admission is free.

LCMS is also excited to announce a unique educational opportunity associated with the Turning Point Ensemble residency. Starting this September, LCMS will be hosting three "Creating Composers" sessions with the Turning Point Ensemble. These sessions will provide an opportunity for students to learn about and actively participate in the

About Turning Point Ensemble:

This Vancouver-based ensemble was formed in 2002 by its musician members, and its mandate is to increase the appreciation of music composed during the past 100 years, linking the music of earlier times to the music of today through innovative programming and outstanding performance. The Ensemble was recently honoured with the prestigious Rio Tinto Alcan Award for Performing Arts, 2011.
