Congratulations to our students!

It's festival season, and our students have been taking part in a number of festivals and competitions in the community. Congratulations to pianist Ben Su (Bernie Duerkson, teacher), who placed first in the Chilliwack Festival for his age category, and to pianist Aisa Sayama (Leslie Janos, teacher), who placed first overall in the Chilliwack festival. A LCMS chamber group (Aisa Sayama, Sunny Chan and Kitty Chan) also placed first in Chilliwack.

Earlier this spring, Ray Pullen's guitar students Julian Jayme and Andrew Skepasts won their respective categories at the Envision Jazz Festival in Surrey. Congratulations also to cellist Kitty Chan (Joel Stobbe, teacher), who has been accepted to the National Youth Orchestra.

Best of luck to all of our students taking part in Kiwanis festivals this month. We'll share more news as results come in!

LCMS Welcomes New Faculty

We would like to welcome two new additions to our faculty this month.

Paolo Bortolussi (flute) is a graduate of the University of Ottawa and Indiana University School of Music, where he received his Masters and Doctoral degrees. He is currently also on faculty at Kwantlen University, and is Principal Flutist with the Vancouver Island Symphony.

Kami Lofgren (voice, violin) holds a B.Mus. and M.Mus. in Voice Performance with a major in Early Music from McGill's Schulich School of Music. She is also a Suzuki method instructor in violin. Prior to joining LCMS, Kami was on faculty at Mount Royal Academy of Music as a voice and violin instructor.

Community Day Open House

May 5, 12pm -2pm

Children's Concert at Noon

LCMS is inviting the community to an open house on Saturday May 5! As part of the festivities we are excited to be having a FREE children's concert presenting the classic tale Ferdinand the Bull and other musical stories. The concert will feature LCMS faculty members Joel Stobbe, Elizabeth Bergman, guest artist Calvin Dyck (violin) and others, plus the LCMS Cello Octet and Concert Orchestra. Please contact the office to reserve your tickets.

Community Day is a great day to meet with teachers, ask questions about programs and classes for your family, and secure your space for next year. Please help spread the word about this terrific event!
