Congratulations to all Students in 2012 Scholarship & Awards Festival

The annual Scholarship & Awards Festival took place from February 5-12, and culminated in the Awards Concert on February 18. Congratulations to the 156 students who took part this year, and a big thanks to all of the donors and volunteers who make the festival possible. This year, we were pleased to award $11,750 in scholarships to 106 students! Here's a link to the 2012 Award Winners

Turning Point Ensemble

Guest soloist - Jennifer Scott

LCMS is pleased to present our 2011/12 resident ensemble Turning Point Ensemble. They will present an intriguing programme that showcases the relationship and mutual inspiration of jazz and the often considered more "serious" concert music with works by Igor Stravinsky and Duke Ellington juxtaposed. These are paired along with the international premiere performances of a new work by Jazz artist Dave Douglas and a LCMS-commissioned work by alumnus Brad Turner. Premier Jazz vocalist Jennifer Scott will join the ensemble to perform Ellington and Stravinsky.

Adults:$22 Seniors:$20 Students:$16 LCMS Students:$10
