October News

There's a lot to look forward to this month!

LCMS is thrilled to announce the return of the Creating Composers program with members of the award winning Turning Point Ensemble. This unique program provides an opportunity to learn and actively participate in the step-by-step process of creative composition. The program starts October 14 and culminates with a final concert on November 25. Space is limited. Please contact the office for more information and to register.

Looking for something to do during the ProD day on October 19?

We will be holding a Suzuki Day Camp for Suzuki violin and piano students ages 7-12. It will include a masterclass for each student and fun group activities. The camp will run from 8:45 am to 2:30pm, and the cost is $50. Registration deadline is Monday October 15.

All dressed-up and nowhere to go? Sign-up to play in the annual Student Costume Concert October 28.

From the 16th and 17th century Italian musical world of Monteverdi and Palestrina; from the schools made famous by Vivaldi one hundred years later; Cappella Artemisia, a 10 member ensemble of 6 women's voices, two cornetti, harpsichord and gamba, explores a musical world inhabited by composers and performers whose forbidden music until recently was hidden behind cloistered walls. With an informative and illuminating commentary, they also open a social and historical window onto the women's movement of an earlier era.

Tickets: Adult $22, Senior $20, Student $16, LCMS Student $10

Important Membership Changes

Recently, the board approved changes to LCMS' membership structure, removing the requirement that students and their families be members of the Langley Community Music School society in order to take lessons. Membership is now optional.

Through making this change, we are hoping to build a more engaged membership and a stronger school community. By choosing to become a member of the LCMS society for $10, it shows support for the work that we do, and helps us to remain a vital community organization.

Benefits of membership include a vote in the affairs of the school at the Annual General Meeting, and an invitation to special members' events during the year. Membership is valid from July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013.

Notice of Annual General Meeting Monday October 15, 2012 at 7:30pm

If you wish to vote at the AGM, LCMS bylaws require that you must purchase your membership at least 30 days in advance of the AGM (September 15). Nominations for the Board close 14 days in advance of the AGM.

Membership forms and nomination forms are available at the LCMS office.

About LCMS

Langley Community Music School is a non-profit charitable organization that has been serving the community since 1969. LCMS is a centre for excellence in music education. It's our goal is to provide students with the opportunity to study with highly qualified faculty and to develop a life-long appreciation of music. We are proud of the school's reputation for offering an all-inclusive selection of programming for students of all ages and levels.

We gratefully acknowledge the financial assistance of the Province of British Columbia.
