Rose Gellert Hall Season Opener

Musica Mysterium

Cappella Artemisia

October 27, 2012 - 7:30pm

From the 16th and 17th century Italian musical world of Monteverdi and Palestrina; from the schools made famous by Vivaldi one hundred years later, Cappella Artemisia, a 10 member ensemble of 6 women's voices, two cornetti, harpsichord and gamba, explores a musical world inhabited by composers and performers whose forbidden music until recently was hidden behind cloistered walls. With an informative and illuminating commentary, they also open a social and historical window onto the women's movement of an earlier era.
