February School News

New Classes Starting Soon

Interested in Children's Choir? LCMS is excited to be able to offer choir for FREE to students taking private lessons at LCMS for the remainder of the school year. The choir will be open to LCMS students ages 8-12, and will meet on Mondays at 4:30pm. The first practice will be February 18. The choir will be directed by Michelle Bredenholler, B.Mus & B.Ed, and Music Specialist at MEI in Abbotsford. Please contact the office to register for this class.

If you are interested in Orff or Suzuki Violin Prep classes, please contact the office as we are starting new classes at this time. Registrations for Babies & Toddlers classes and private lessons are accepted throughout the year.

Student Success

Congratulations to pianist Ben Su, who placed first in the 15-17 yr category of the New York International Artists Piano Competition. As his prize, Ben will be performing in Carnegie Hall, New York, on February 24!! Ben's teacher is Bernard Duerksen.

Scholarship & Awards Festival Reminder

The LCMS Festival will be running from February 9-16. This is a reminder that this week is not included as a teaching week in the standard term. Some teachers may be teaching make-up or additional lessons this week - please confirm your lesson schedule with your teacher. For students participating in the Festival, the schedule is now available.
