Happy New Year!

Classes and lessons are back in session this week after Christmas break.

New Classes Starting Soon

If you are interested in Orff or Suzuki Violin Prep classes, please contact the office as we are starting new classes at this time. If you are interested in finding out more about the Suzuki program, a Suzuki Orientation Session will be held on January 25. Contact the office for more details and to sign up. Registrations for Babies & Toddlers classes and private lessons are accepted throughout the year.

Student Performance Opportunities

We are looking forward to a January filled with activity leading up to the Festival in February. There will be a Junior Student Recital on January 19, and a Winds Performance Class on January 25. Many teachers are also holding studio recitals in preparation for the festival.

Upcoming Concerts & Masterclasses

We are also very excited to be presenting a number of concerts in the next few weeks that include masterclasses with visiting musicians. Please see the concert listing below for more information.
