May School News

LCMS is looking forward to a May packed full of events and activity, including a number of year end concerts and recitals that are sure to be highlights of the year.

This month, we will also be welcoming the South Fraser Registered Music Teachers Concerto Stars project to LCMS. On Friday May 10, twenty students will be performing in Rose Gellert Hall ahead of the main concert at the Bell Centre on May 12.

We're also starting to hear about regional festival results for many of our students. Congratulations to all of our students who have been taking part, and stay tuned for results in our next newsletter!

Community Day and Open House

questions about programs and classes for your family, and secure your space for next year. Please help spread the word about this terrific event!

Faculty Concert

The school will also be opening its doors on May 4 for a special performance by members of the LCMS faculty at 7:30pm. The concert is an annual tradition, with faculty coming together to perform and support the school. Admission to the faculty concert is by donation, with all proceeds going towards supporting school programs.

Rose Gellert Hall

Vivace - Vocal Ensemble

Melody Mercredi, Tiffany Desrosiers

Marc Devigne and DJ Calhoun

with Marcel Bergmann, piano

May 25, 2013 - 7:30pm

Vivace is the latest addition to the classical crossover/popera genre. The four unique and exceptional singers who have each enjoyed individual success in their solo careers have merged their talents to create a new and modern ensemble. Vivace's colourful blend of sound with two male and two female voices is undoubtedly a fresh new take on classical music..

Tickets: Adult $22, Senior $20, Student $16, LCMS Student $10

A special benefit concert made possible through a generous donation from Ledcor.

Silent Auction at Vivace Concert

The Vivace concert on May 25 will also be a fundraiser for the school. We will be holding a silent auction in support of school programs, and are looking for donations of auction items.

We've already received a gorgeous hand-carved wooden bowl, generously donated by David Broomhead.

If you are interested in supporting LCMS through the donation of a silent auction item, please contact the office.
