

Langley Community Music School

Bringing Music to Life

You are Invited to Become a Member!

Langley Community Music School (LCMS) relies on the support of community members to ensure that our students receive the highest quality of music education, and that they are part of a community of learners whose experience involves so much more than just a private lesson: expert instruction, exciting performance opportunities, program subsidies, scholarships and bursaries, professional concerts and master classes with visiting guest artists.

By becoming a member of the LCMS Society for $10, you are showing your support for the work that we do, and helping us to remain a vital community organization. Your membership entitles you to a vote at the annual general meeting and an invitation to special events throughout the year. Membership is valid from July 1, 2018 to June 30, 2019.

Please help us continue our commitment to excellence by becoming a member of the Langley Community Music School Society and/or making a donation.
